

Mask Fit Testing

Sponsored by:

In collaboration with:

Presented by: Cynthia Guenther, CRT, Respiratory Care Practitioner, Texas Center for Infectious Disease & Barry Sanders, PPE Product Specialist, 3M Company

Target Audience: This course is intended for the public health staff responsible for their programs respiratory protection program. The goal of this course is to identify the components of a respiratory protection program and describe how to conduct a proper mask fit and seal test.

Conference Goal: Upon completion of this web-based training, participants will be able to identify the components of a respiratory protection program and describe how to conduct a proper mask fit and seal test.

Continuing Education: This activity provides 2.0 CNE or 0.2 CEU credit s through the CDC Continuing Education Department.

Disclosure: CDC, our planners, our presenters, and their spouses/partners wish to disclose they have no financial interests or other relationships with the manufacturers of commercial products, suppliers of commercial services, or commercial supporters with the exception of Barry Sanders and he wishes to disclose he works for 3M Company. Planners have reviewed content to ensure there is no bias. Presentations will not include any discussion of the unlabeled use of a product or a product under investigational use. CDC did not accept commercial support for this continuing education activity.

Registration: Registration is free and available on line at, http://www.heartlandntbc.org/training/courses_enduring.php

For questions please contact Heartland National TB Center

BY PHONE: 1-800-TEX-LUNG

NO commercial support was given to Heartland National TB Center or UT Health for this educational program.